Her descriptions are visual. There is nothing predictable here. And then, as if that isn t enough, there is a twist ending that will give you gooseflesh. Guaranteed. The characters are real--not just Sophia and Peter, but the secondary characters as well, and they are woven in in such a way as to keep the reader guessing until the final page is turned. Forget all you ve learned about werewolves. These are a new breed. They will haunt you long after you close the book and consign it to your shelf until you re ready to take it down and read it again. It s that good. If you want a fast-paced, dark and spooky read by a talent author who is sure to shine through many...
