Life Takes a Turn

By Ed Griffin

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 82 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. These eleven short stories bring to the fore many situations that lead to Life Taking a Turn. A soldier faces PTSD, a death row prison guard fears the negativity of his job, and a mentally challenged man steps into the non-challenged world for a brief time. A woman says those life-changing words, Im leaving you, while another woman is torn between teaching in her school district and teaching in a prison at a much lower salary. Despite the opposition of nearly everybody, a social worker considers moving to skid row, where all her clients live. Life might take a big turn if Greg Bradford gets his way. Hes just told his boss that hes becoming a woman. And how does a man react when the doctor says, Its terminal On a lighter note a man grumbles along as he tells the story of his suburb, where the mayor--his wife - has banned cars. Life Takes a Turn for all of us. See how these eleven people react. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
