Windover By Brita Bradbury Directed by Cherry Cookson This ghost story is set on the wild Atlantic coast of North Devon, told through the eyes of Jenny, a girl of nearly nineteen, whose recently deceased grandmother Mary has bequeathed her Windover, the cottage where she is staying with her father and his girlfriend during summer vacation. Before long, Jenny is troubled by visions of two teenage girls and learns, from a photograph taken in 1934, that these girls are her grandmother Mary and Mary's friend Cathy. As the days go by, Jenny finds herself drawn into the tragic events that occurred nearly eighty years earlier.

Burke Hare By Terence Newman Directed by Robert Valentine Burke Hare is the story of the infamous nineteenth-century Scottish grave-robbers who weren't Scottish and didn't rob graves. They were actually Irish, and since robbing graves to supply the needs of Edinburgh's anatomists proved to be rather hard work, they just took to murdering people—usually...
